

CELEBRATION OF BLACK HISTORY MONTH
"AFRO-AMERICAN SCHOLARS: LEADERS, ACTIVISTS, AND WRITERS"
THURSDAY, 25 FEBRUARY 1993
10:00 A.M.
HEADQUARTERS AUDITORIUM

SCENARIO

0930 Ms. Dorothy Gilliam, journalist, and Mr. Gregory Bargeman, actor, arrive at Headquarters and are met by [] Chief, Protocol Branch.
[] Director, OEE0, and []
[] Black Affairs Program Manager, OEE0.

Photographer will take photos of "greeting on arrival."

Mr. Bargeman will go directly to the auditorium to rehearse his program.

0945 Chief, Protocol Branch will escort Ms. Gilliam, [] to the seventh floor where they will meet the DCI.

Admiral Studeman will join the above meeting in the DCI's office.

0958 Chief, Protocol Branch will escort DCI, DDCI, and guests to the Auditorium.

1000 [] proceeds to lectern where she will welcome guests and colleagues and introduce Mr. Bargeman.

Dramatic presentation by Mr. Bargeman

Following the dramatic presentation, []
[] Executive Officer for Near East and South Asia Division, DO, will move to the stage and, after brief remarks, invite the DCI to present the "Trailblazer" award, and [] to join him to posthumously accept for her late husband. [] will comment on [] contribution to the Agency and then he will hand the "Trailblazer" plaque to the DCI for presentation.

[] has been selected as the recipient of the "Trailblazer" award in recognition of his contribution to the Agency's Black Affairs Program. [] was a DA officer and was a pioneer in establishing the Agency's Equal Employment Office and program. He was also a minority recruitment officer in the EEO. He died just before Thanksgiving of last year.

STAT

Following the presentation to [] the DCI will step to the lectern and introduce the guest speaker, Ms. Gilliam

DCI returns to his seat in the auditorium and Ms. Gilliam gives her presentation.

STAT

Following Ms. Gilliam's remarks, [] will step to the lectern to thank Ms. Gilliam and Mr. Bargeman. She will ask the audience to join the Agency's Black Chorus in singing "Lift Ev'ry Voice and Sing."